Comments:

(1) '228 classrooms available for general assignment five times each hour = 1140. 1140 class-periods adjusted to maximum anticipated utilization level of (72%)=821.

 One class or section per hour.

 or 3 Numerical allocation can be exceeded only if one class or section exceeds this number.

What is an allocation?

The allocation figure is based on the number of contact-hours offered by each department in general assignment classrooms in the past fall semester relative to the total classroom use and on the number of general assignment classroom periods that will be available during the next academic year.
